

Swiss Capital launch new Cayman Islands Fund

Dillon Eustace acted as Cayman Islands legal counsel to Swiss Capital Alternative Investments AG on the launch in December 2012 of Swiss Capital Alternative Strategies Funds SPC a registered mutual fund structured as a segregated portfolio company. The fund seeks, through its segregated portfolios, to achieve long-term, risk adjusted returns in a combination of capital appreciation and interest income. The first segregated portfolios of the fund, using the services of Angelo, Gordon & Co. as its sub-manager, invests mainly in senior, secured loans and debtor-in-possession loans issued or backed by issuers in North America and Europe with sub-investment grade or no credit rating. The fund is administered in Ireland and Dillon Eustace were able to bring their significant expertise as a market leader in the Irish investment fund industry to the transaction in addition to their Cayman law expertise.
